

National Communications, Cultural and Māori Language Consultant for the Akamatutuānga To Tatou Oraānga Meitaki (ATOM) Project – Te Marae Ora

Te Marae Ora invites applications for a part-time National Communications, Cultural and Māori Language Consultant to support the Green Climate Fund-funded ATOM Project.

The consultant will provide cultural advisory services, Te Reo Māori translation and communication support, ensuring project materials and stakeholder engagement activities are culturally appropriate, inclusive, and aligned with Cook Islands Māori values and knowledge systems.

Key Requirements:

- Fluency in Te Reo Māori and working knowledge of English.
- Experience in translation, interpretation, communications, or cultural advisory work.
- Strong knowledge of Cook Islands culture, traditions, and community engagement.
- Excellent interpersonal and facilitation skills.

Location: Rarotonga (with travel to the Pa Enua as required)

Contract: Part-time retainer basis

Duration: Up to three years (equivalent to five months' level of effort)

How to Apply

Interested applicants can request a full Terms of Reference from Boyd Ellison, at tmo.boydellison@cookislands.gov.ck

Applications close on Wednesday the 12th of August 2026.

Join us in building healthier and more climate-resilient Cook Islands communities through the ATOM Project.